

Amy Johnson – Source 1

It's simply fine being in digs. I'm having the time of my life. We've got the gramophone on tonight and all I want at present is somebody to dance with. I'm simply aching for a dance. There is a dance class tomorrow night at the Univ, which I shall be driven to go to as a last resort. The dance last Tuesday was ripping!

Letter from Amy Johnson at Sheffield University, October 1922 SOURCE A

SOURCE B

SOURCE C

Last Wednesday night I was having a wonderful time – was taken out by a young gentleman and it must have cost him an awful lot of money. We had cocktails at the Criterion: then went to the Café Marguerite for dinner and then... for cabaret till 2am – finished up on whiskeys and sodas and pate de fois gras.

Letter from Amy Johnson May 1928

SOURCE D

<http://www.historytoherstory.org.uk>