

Amy Johnson – Source 1

Hull born Amy Johnson, wrote letters to her partner Hans Arregger, a Swiss businessman who also lived in Hull. Amy was a student at the University of Sheffield, the History to Her Story website hold 286 letters from the time period 1922-1928.

SOURCE A

Amy Johnson letter to Hans Arregger, 8 Nov 1924. Transcription:

Dear Hans,

I am coming home on Tuesday (the 11th) Irene and Mrs Petrice are fetching me. Am coming back the following Monday. It would be rather nice to go to a dance, if there happened to be a decent one (which phrase if I were putting into Latin would go in the subjunctive as a condition unlikely of fulfilment).

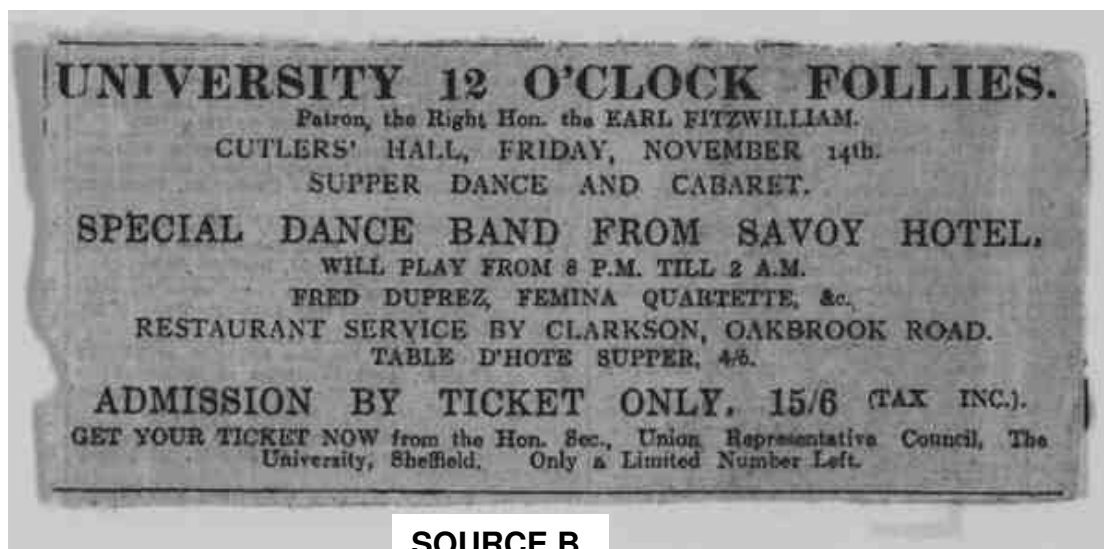

Though sure, I'm so soaked in work, that I'm afraid you'll find me more boring than ever.

... you really were a dear to write...

Goodbye for the present

Amy

Amy Johnson, Letter to Hans Arregger, 8 November 1924
HCL1/17/004 (Outside Service)

SOURCE B

<http://www.historytoherstory.org.uk>