

Amy Johnson – Source 2

Hull born Amy Johnson, wrote letters to her partner Hans Arregger, a Swiss businessman who also lived in Hull. Amy moved to London, after being a student at the University of Sheffield, the History to Her Story website hold 286 letters from the time period 1922-1928.

Amy Johnson letter to Hans Arregger, 14 Dec 1927. Transcription:

I'm so sorry, darling, it's so late & I haven't time to reply properly to your two letters. I've had an awful day – only got in at 9 o'clock and since then have had such a lot to do. Winifred has a black toe nail where she got hit at hockey & went to sleep in front of the fire & has been asleep all of the evening. They never washed any of our pots this evening & it's taken me half an hour to do the washing up....I've had quite a few things to get ready...

Amy Johnson, Letter to Hans Arregger, 14 December, 1927
HCL1/247/002 (Outside Service)

<http://www.historytoherstory.org.uk>