

Amy Johnson – Worksheet 1

Hull born Amy Johnson, wrote letters to her partner Hans Arregger, a Swiss businessman who also lived in Hull. Amy was a student at the University of Sheffield, the History to Her Story website hold 286 letters from the time period 1922-1928. Using the source transcription and the dance ticket – try answering the questions below:

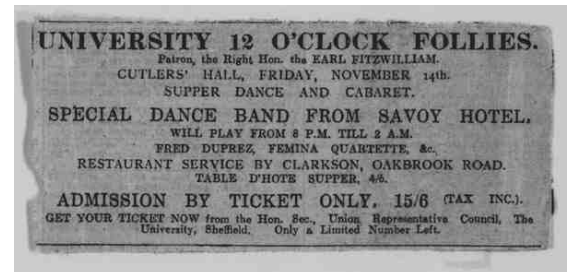

1. From Amy Johnson's letters, (you can look at more of them on the History to Her Story website) what can we learn about her day to day life in 1924?

2. What can we learn about her relationship with Hans Arregger from the letter?

3. Looking at the ticket for the dance at Sheffield University – what kind of entertainment is offered there?

4. How does 1924s University entertainment compare and contrast with what University students could expect today?

<http://www.historytoherstory.org.uk>